

10/14/26

407

Fick also remarked that it is too bad that the trials are not going to be held in December instead of November as he finds that the rank and file of the public which at first thought Simpson was on the right track are now getting tired and disgusted with the methods he is employing and the general trend of public sentiment is now gradually turning to Mrs. Hall and her kin.

Respectfully submitted:

D.T.

6